

GEOLOGICAL COLLECTION.

Valuable One Presented Bristol Public Library—Over 2,000 Specimens.

An interesting and valuable geological collection of at least 2,000 specimens, properly labeled, has been presented to the public library of Bristol by Edward and Dudley Ingraham. The collection was begun by the grandfather of the donors, the late Edward Ingraham, and represents the accumulation of years. The majority of the specimens are from the United States, but many are from foreign countries.

Most of the known minerals are represented and there are many interesting specimens of precious stones, forms of crystallization, petrographic, etc. The specimens have been displayed in suitable cases in the museum in the basement of the library.

The old books lent the library by Mrs. R. K. Lashier have been placed in special cases and make an interesting display of samples of early book-binding.

Good Fish Stories.

Tariffville has some of the best fishermen in the state and they can tell as good a story as their brethren in any part of the country. J. H. Foran, Ernest Albhouse, Matthew Spring, Edward Messenger, Israel Green and George Tucker went to Southwick ponds Wednesday evening of last week and commenced fishing at the right hour Thursday morning. The party brought back 35 bass weighing none of them less than a pound and from that to four pounds, the biggest being caught by Ernest Albhouse. This fishing was done by casting.

This story of good luck fishing brought out a story of what J. W. Finney and a party including Dr. C. C. Smith of Hartford and a son of Senator Cleveland did a few years ago. They fished the lake part of a day and brought back a basket full of bass.

FELL TWENTY FEET.

Two Year Old Eugene Bertrand Slipped from Second Story Window—Fractured Leg.

Friday evening about 6 o'clock Eugene, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxine Bertrand of 1071 Main street, fell from a second story window to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet, and sustained a fracture to his right leg. Mrs. Bertrand had placed the child in the sink in the kitchen by an open window and while she was busy preparing the evening meal the boy leaned over the sill and fell. Dr. C. H. Girard was called and quickly took the boy to St. Joseph's Hospital, where the leg was set. He was resting comfortably Sunday afternoon.

CITY COURT.

Jail for Pop Barry—L. N. Dondoro Pays Fine—Tyburski Case Appealed—Fine for Alexander Linda.

The session of police court Saturday morning was more largely attended than any session for many months. Charles Barry, known as "Pop," was charged with being drunk Friday. He pleaded guilty. Barry's fall to the sidewalk near the corner of Church and Main streets attracted a big crowd Friday afternoon. In his own behalf Barry said that he was drunk but the reason why he fell was that someone struck him but he did not know who the person was. He asked for another chance. Judge Arnold sentenced him to thirty days in the county jail. The person before the court charged with an assault upon Barry was L. N. Dondoro. He pleaded guilty. The prosecuting attorney said that Barry admitted he was drunk when Dondoro struck him after Barry had accused Dondoro of trying to run over him with his automobile. Words resulted and the blow was struck that felled Barry to the sidewalk. Judge Arnold imposed a fine of $5 and an appeal upon Mr. Dondoro, which was paid.

Appeal Taken.

John Tyburski, charged with breach of the peace, was represented by Attorney P. A. Danahy. Tyburski pleaded guilty. He had trouble at the Quindick-Whitman Manufacturing Company's plant Friday forenoon. The overseer, the second hand and a couple of other witnesses testified with regard to the affair. Through an interpreter Tyburski testified that he overslept Friday morning and did not get to the mill until late. Sometimes afterwards he wanted some breakfast and asked permission to go and get some. He went out and after satisfying his hunger, changed his clothes and returned to the mill to get his pay. He said they then marked the cuts in the loom that were finished, but they refused and he had out a couple of the cuts, as he had a right to do, and then he was struck. The fight followed. Attorney Danahy told the court that he had advised his client to plead guilty to breach of the peace. He asked for a nominal fine. Attorney Bugbee said he did not know that the fight was such a bad one and therefore did not feel like making any recommendation. Judge Arnold said it was apparent that there had been a terrible breach of the peace. He took into consideration the agreement of counsel and imposed a fine of $10 and costs. Otherwise he would have sentenced the man to jail. Attorney Danahy gave notice of an appeal to the superior court and the bond was $7 and $25.

Fine of $7 and Costs.

Alexander Linda, 23, was before court charged with assault upon John Roskiewicz. He pleaded guilty. Chief Richmond told the circumstances of the arrest. Linda, in his own behalf told the court that he, with friends, had gone in the afternoon to Joseph Klipka's saloon in Ash street and played pool. He was able to defeat John, the fellow he assaulted later, and this did not set well with John and his following and he was thrown out of the place. He went to Adm. Gajewski where he was employed as a bartender and John came in later and started a fight. In the melee he struck John and his arrest followed. John was in court but did not make any statement. He had a gash two or three inches in his head. Judge Arnold imposed a fine of $7 and costs, which Linda paid.

Chaplin-Hampton State Road.

The Jones-Porcario Construction Company started on the Chaplin and Hampton state road job. Work was commenced last Monday and those who have occasion to pass that way say that a pretty good showing has already been made. Mr. Jones is superintending the work with Alphonse Conlinas, foreman in charge. They expect to receive today or Tuesday a Thew street machine that will be a great help in the construction of the road. Mr. Porcario is still in Glastonbury putting on the finishing touches to the state road. The job will be completed within the next month in all probability.

Boy in Bicycle Accident.

Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Summer, was turning the corner of Church street and Prospect street Saturday morning and in getting out of the way of a team the wheel skidded and fell with the rider on the curb. The lad escaped injury. The bicycle smashed a front wheel and rim and had all the spokes broken out.

But One Bid for Sewer Contract.

Mayor Daniel P. Dunn, Corporation Counsel William A. King, City Engineer Robert E. Mitchell and the members of the sewer committee held another meeting at the office of the city

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

A Skin Trouble That Needs Scientific Treatment.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.

Instead of bothering with cosmetics and worthless "beauty formulas," if you will treat that case of pimples scientifically you will get results.

We advise upon our new skin remedy, Sazo Salve, which is very soothing, yet penetrates the skin and exerts its healing power from the very moment of application.

Any pure salve may be used with this remedy—just apply Sazo Salve at night, following directions. Not only does it clear the face of pimples, but cures and soothes angry itching, scaly or cracked eruptions even yield to its healing power.

The marked and continual improvement noticed shortly after the treatment, is again well seen in the fact that Sazo Salve is far superior to any other remedy for the skin.

If you do not get good results from it, we will take your money back. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Engler, Norwich, Conn.

clerk Friday evening for the purpose of opening bid for the sewer construction of Fairview and Brook streets. There was but one bidder—Andres D. Berardini & Company of Hartford. The bid was $1 for each lineal foot of the sewer—3-inch, $5 for each manhole and $4.50 per cubic yard for rock excavation. The complete job will cost the city approximately $2,900.

Taxes Come in Well.

City Tax Collector William A. Costello has made his first report to City Treasurer Albert C. Scripture. During June, $33,454.26 was collected. The total tax on the list amounted to $261,000 to $32,000. The showing made by Tax Collector Costello is considered very good.

Boating Parties Sunday.

Many boating and canoeing parties dotted the Willimantic River Sunday and most of the shady nooks along the river banks were occupied by people trying to escape the heat. The river is becoming more popular each season and the number of craft of all kinds appears to be increasing also.

FALLS FROM LOAD OF HAY.

Deputy Sheriff Fitts of Hampton Gets Severe Shaking Up.

Deputy Sheriff H. F. Fitts of Hampton was injured while haying on his farm Saturday, falling from a load of hay. He was slightly more seriously injured, but after Dr. R. C. White had made an examination it is reported that Mr. Fitts had suffered nothing else. Mr. Fitts was slightly more comfortable Sunday and it is expected that he will suffer no ill effects as a result of his fall, although he is sore and stiff and somewhat bruised.

Outings to South Coventry Lake.

Several hundreds of people went by trolley to South Coventry Sunday and enjoyed the day about the lake or on the shore. Many visitors were obtained by those owning bungalows along the shore. Most of the cottagers have opened up their homes for the season, with few promises to be the most busy one yet at the lake.

How South Windham Celebrated.

The boys of South Windham carried out their plans for the Fourth without any trouble and on account of a few grouchy people in the village there was no noise until four o'clock. The South Windham drum corps played the Star Spangled Banner, beginning a little after twelve o'clock and playing until four.

Richard Perry, who lives on Babcock Hill, was given a serenade by the drum corps and the boys were given a treat and were also treated by Michael Healey of Elm avenue and Mrs. Mary Crane of Machine Shop Hill.

Promptly at four o'clock the boys behind the guns did their duty, firing continually until about six. The only mishap that occurred was the exploding of one of the cannon, but no one was injured.

The evening celebrating was left to the boys with the cannon, as the drum corps could not have its leader.

Where Kid Gloves Come From.
One of the important industries of France is the raising of kids for their skins, which are used for glove making. This work is carried on chiefly by the mountaineers, says Harper's Weekly. Softness, delicacy of texture and freedom from blemish are principal factors in the value of kid skins and to secure these essentials great pains are taken.

As soon as the young animal begins to eat grass the value of its skin declines, for with a grass diet the kid's skin immediately becomes coarser and harder in texture and its chief merit thus vanishes. It is, therefore, kept closely penned, not only to prevent it from eating grass, but also to protect its valuable skin against accidental injuries that might impair its marketability.

When the kids have attained a certain age, at which the skins are in the best condition for the use of the glove, they are killed and the hides are sold to dealers.

The superior quality of these kid skins, due somewhat to climatic conditions, is what has given France the supremacy in the manufacture of the finest grades of real kid gloves, a supremacy that will doubtless long be maintained, inasmuch as foreign manufacturers must resort to using second class skins.

A Nipping Sign.
An observer of signs apes on the West Side the following alack at gossip: "Wanted—Old hens to pick at their own scraggly feathers and let the rest of the world move peacefully on."

No Attempt to Burn Hotel.
There is no truth in the report that an attempt was made one night last week to burn the Hotel Central at Central Village. The story originated from the fact that a carelessly thrown firecracker set a burlap bag ablaze near the hotel.

Hot Wave Bad for the Weak and Unfortunate.
The hot weather seems to make the going hard for the weak fighters. On the last day of the week the town court has had intonation cases to consider, whereas until recently there has been very little of business. Looks like a good record was going to smash.

At Central Village the rooms of the Central Social club have been broken into, a set of pool balls stolen and money taken from a box where the players deposited coins. The police are investigating the break.

Machinery that has been service, but is needed for use elsewhere, was being removed from the premises of the Danielson Cotton company and taken to the P. and D. station for shipment.

FIFTY TONS OF HAY
To Be Sold and Proceeds Left in Clerk Warner's Care Till Suit is Settled.

By agreement between the plaintiff and defendant in the case of the Willimantic Manufacturing company vs. the Killingly Manufacturing company, it has been decided that 50 tons of hay, the ownership of which is in dispute, shall be sold and the avails turned over to the clerk of the superior court for Windham county, to be held by that officer until the case now pending in the superior court is decided. The hay, of excellent quality, was cut last year.

Pierre Petao Condemns Turkey Trot.
Pierre Petao remarks: "I been seen last week for the first time that thing when you trot turkey trot. That's enough for me. I never take much acquaintance with turkey because she cost so much a pound, but I am going to let you if I walk like that people dance, the fellow that make it don't sit his legs right and I got a believe its head something the matter with it. A turkey what goes to be ashamed of itself won't walk at all."

Gypsies Ordered Out.
A caravan of gypsies left Danielson Saturday bound for some nearby town where they probably will be fully as unwelcome as they were here. They were seen on the road here and there they had commenced to pester everyone in sight to have fortunes told. They were a bold and vile crew. Woman of the band entered houses to solicit food and whatever else they thought they could get, and they were not easy to be rid of, even after they were frankly told to be off about their business. Charles Keach, who was on duty, and his posse, which possessed six covered teams and a score of horses, while here they were camped on an open field at Fall Brook, on the Wauregan road.

DEPORTED TO RUSSIA.
Tekla Bogda, Criminal Charge Nolleed, Sails for New York on Saturday.

From New York, Saturday for a Russian port, if all went as arranged, sailed Tekla Bogda, Willimantic, deported by the United States government at the request of officials of the Russian government. Since her charge of adultery, the woman has been held in the county jail at Brookline, awaiting trial before the superior court.

On its becoming evident that the woman was about to be confined, she was not put to plea at the last term of the court at which criminal business was considered. Sheriff P. B. Sibley took up with state officials the matter of having the woman deported, that she might not become a public charge, and by the morning took the case to the federal government, to the attention of the federal government. The facts were such that the government decided to send the woman out of the country by arrangement to which she was not averse, the criminal charge against her being nolleed.

It is understood that the Bogda woman, who is about 40 years of age, is married, her husband being in Stamford in this state, but, according to local people in touch with the case, he wants nothing to do with her.

ATTAWAUGAN CO. PROSPERS.
Advancement of Big Industry Means Much to Merchants.

There was much satisfaction here over the announcement that it has been decided to build an addition to the plant of the Attawaugan company in Attawaug. The manufacturing company is practically the whole life of the village of Attawaugan, Ballouville and Pineville, where it has plants, through good times and bad, through prosperity and panic these mills have run as steadily as any in New England, and they have for many years been a certain and valuable asset when the owners of Killingly are under consideration. They are of the class of manufacturers that hold the majority of their employees for years, one of the strongest testimonies that may be given a mill concern.

Husband of the Future.

Windham county is a great producer of teachers who find places in other states, especially New Jersey. The average salary for a teacher is considerably higher than in Connecticut. Those who like to see Putnam's prospects realized are rather disappointed over the fact that no work has been done as yet on either the proposed government postoffice building or the new central telephone station, the sites for which are close together. There is no indication as yet that any work is to be done this summer. It is not probable that either building will be completed during the present year.

Thurber, artist, Putnam Heights, entertained a party of his friends who came to his home one day last week by showing them his collection of paintings and by narrating many incidents associated with his life.
